

HONORS THESIS CONSENT FORM

By signing and submitting this form, you (the author and copyright owner) grant to Franklin & Marshall College the non-exclusive right to reproduce and distribute your thesis in print and electronic form. You agree that Franklin & Marshall College may, without changing the content, convert your thesis to any medium or format for the sole purpose of historical preservation.

It is understood that your thesis will be permanently archived as a part of the Archives & Special Collections for scholarly use by students, faculty, and the general public. All student honors theses will be incorporated into Scholars Square, the College's digital institutional repository.

Scholars Square allows the college to provide two levels of access to your thesis. Please check the desired level below:

Franklin & Marshall College is granted permission to maintain and provide access to my thesis in hardcopy and via the Web (through Scholars Square) both on and off campus.
(Selecting this option allows researchers from around the world access to the digital version of your work.)

Franklin & Marshall College is granted permission to maintain and provide access to my thesis in hardcopy and via the Web (through Scholars Square) for the F&M community only.
(Selecting this option allows only current F&M faculty, students and professional staff access to the digital version of your work.)

You represent that this thesis is your original work, and that you have the right to grant the permissions contained in this form. You also represent that your thesis does not, to the best of your knowledge, infringe upon anyone else's copyright.

If your thesis is based upon work that has been sponsored or supported by an agency or organization other than Franklin & Marshall College, you represent that you have fulfilled any rights, reviews, or other obligations required by such contract or agreement.

HONORS THESIS INSTRUCTIONS FOR STUDENTS

To ensure your honors thesis is properly formatted, cataloged, and stored in the College Archives & Special Collections, it is important that it conform to the following specifications:

1. Title page should contain the following information:
 - Full name of student
 - Department(s) or special programs to which the thesis is being submitted
 - Name of academic course and indication if the thesis is for departmental honors
 - Expected date of graduation
 - Date project was submitted
2. Please include an abstract within the thesis if possible. If an abstract is not included within the thesis, please include a short abstract in a separate Microsoft Word file. The abstract increases the usefulness of the thesis to researchers by providing a summary of the document, along with relevant keywords for searching in Scholars Square, the College's digital institutional repository.
3. For the final print version, please provide a single-sided copy of the thesis in the exact order you intended the pages to be presented. No special paper is required. Please do not bind the document.
4. For the final electronic version, please burn a final copy of the thesis to a blank CD-R in Microsoft Word format. Include all material in a single file in the exact order you intended the pages to be presented (except for a separate file for the abstract if the thesis does not include one). Please indicate your full name and sponsoring department(s) on the CD-R.
5. Please complete an Honors Thesis Consent Form. Since a thesis is considered a student record, permission is required in order to show the thesis to a researcher. Please note that the consent form requires the signature of both the student and faculty advisor. A reproducible copy of the form is available online at:
<http://library.fandm.edu/archives/honorsconsentform.pdf>

Please submit the paper copy, CD-R, and completed Honors Thesis Consent Form to the Archives and Special Collections in one of the following ways:

1. Bring the materials to the Archives and Special Collections, Ground Floor, Shadefackenthal Library.
2. Send the materials via campus mail to Christopher Raab, Archives and Special Collections Librarian, Shadefackenthal Library
3. Deposit the materials in the Honors Theses Mail Box, Public Services Office, First Floor, Shadefackenthal Library.

If you have any questions, please contact Christopher Raab, Archives and Special Collections Librarian, at craab@fandm.edu or 291-4225.
